

ICAGG2017

Conference Programme

ICAGG 2017 – 1st International Conference of Anarchist Geographies and Geographers (ICAGG) – Geography, social change and antiauthoritarian practices Reggio Emilia (Italy) – Centro Studi Cucine del Popolo, via Beethoven 78/e, 21–23 September 2017

Day 1 – Thursday 21/09

Session 1 – 9.30/11.10

Anarchist theories 1 – CHAIR: Federico Ferretti
Anthony Ince	Univ. of Cardiff	Anti-fascism and spaces of liberation: towards an anarchist agenda for anti-fascist geographies.
Fabian Laute	Universität zu Köln	One possible perspective on the methodological basement of the anthropogeographical discipline.
Mariza Ferreira da Silva	Federal University of Paraná (UFPR)	From anarchist philosophies to decolonial theories – a history that transcends Marxist radical critical geographies and post-structuralist.

Sarah Gelbard	McGill	“Fuck gentrification” is the new “fuck the man”: the desirability of undesirable punk space.

Session 2 – 11.30/13.10

Anarchist theories 2 – CHAIR: Simon Springer
Patrick W. Huff	Birckbeck	Anarchism, Territory and the Radical Geography of Democratic Confederalism.
Geronimo Barrera and Alejandro de la Torre	Univ. of Austin Texas	Deterritorializing anarchism: an approach to the libertarian geography.
Richard White	Sheffield Hallam	21st Century Anarchist Geographies and the Purity of Rebellion.
Frédérique Blot	Univ. of Albi	For a relational approach of sciences-societies-environment interactions.

Session 3 – 14.30/16.10

Topics: Historical Geographies of Anarchism – CHAIR: Teresa Vicente

Jose Luis Oyon	Univ. of Barcelona	La ciudad en el joven Reclus, 1830-1871: hacia la fusión naturaleza-ciudad.
Federico Ferretti	UCD	Evolution and Revolution: science, agency and more-than human intersectionality in the works of early anarchist geographers.
Ruth Kinna	Univ. of Loughborough	‘The Coming Anarchy’ and the anarchy that materialised: Peter Kropotkin’s geography of anti-statecraft.
Fabrizio Eva	University Cà Foscari Venice, Treviso campus	Looking for a debate: which ones are the characters of an anarchist approach in Geopolitics?

Session 4 – 16.30/18.10

Anarchists and the city – CHAIR: Richard White

Tewfik Hammoudi	ENSA Nantes	The Geddes civics in digital post capitalistic society.
Javier Ruiz-Tagle; Labbé Gricel; Martín Alvarez;	PUC – Chile	Urban marginality and institutional effects: An alternative perspective to Martín Montes; Matías Aninat		the ‘neighbourhood effects’ thesis from the study of three neighbourhoods in Santiago de Chile.

Ophélie Véron	Univ. Catholique de Louvain	Exploring the Anarchist City: Autonomy, Mutual Aid and Self-Management in la Baraque.
Stefano Portelli	Univ. of Rome “La Sapienza”	The horizontal city: an implicit counter-power in the periphery of Barcelona
Federico Venturini	Independent researcher/Activist	Militant Direct Action and Trabalho de Base as Innovative Practices of Resistance, the case of Rio de Janeiro.

Day 2 – Friday 22/09

Session 1 – 9.30/11.10

Grassroots Movements – Housing – CHAIR: Simon Springer
Olivier T. Kramsch & Gordon Dustin	Radboud Universitet	From Café Terecht to the Just People collective: reflections on/from the borders of geography, social change and antiauthoritarian practices in Nijmegen, The Netherlands.

Francisca Cancino Contreras	Universidad de Chile	A Rupture within Chilean Neoliberalism: The Movimiento de Pobladores en Lucha and the reconquest of the popular territories.
Pierpaolo Mudu & Andrea Aureli	Univ. of Washington & St. Johns	No place like “home”: emptying space and surplus humanity in Italy context.
Rowan Tallis Milligan	Vienna – Independent researcher	Better to squat than let homes rot: the politics of occupation in the neoliberal city

Session 2 – 11.30/13.10

Topics: Grassroots Movements – Housing CHAIR: José Luis Oyón
Ines Morales Bernardos	Univ. of Cordoba	The socio-spatiality of radical struggles for food autonomy in the city of Athens
Giovanni Lupieri, Federico Venturini	Univ. of Bologna	Networks, libertarian practices and social centre in the experience of Udine’s Student Movement.
Leslie Parraguez Sanchez	PUC	The Chilean Student

		Movement and the Crisis of Equity in Large Cities: A Socio-Spatial Approach to the Formation of Resistance in a Post-Dictatorial Country.
Mark & Brandon Purcell	Univ. of Washington	Planning, Deleuze & Guattari, and Alternative Food Movements in Oaxaca.
Erin Araujo	Memorial Univ. of New Foundland	Thinking, Practicing Anarchist Economics in the Americas.
Ferdinand Stenglein	University of Muenster	Connect-in-Difference: Lessons from the Commune

Session 3 – 14.30/16.10

Borders – Migrant identities and cosmopolitanism – CHAIR: Anthony Ince
James Ellison	Loughborough	Freedom of movement struggles and the abolition of borders: borderwork, anarchist politics, and decolonising solidarity.
Valeria Raimondi	GSSI – L'Aquila	Countering the European border regime: refugees' strategies of resistance.

		The case of self-organized reception in Athens, Greece.
Charalampos Tsavdaroglou	Univ. of Thessaloniki	“You cannot evict a movement” No Border Actions and Emerging Common Spaces in Athens, Idomeni and Thessaloniki.
Marcella Schmidt di Friedberg, Stefano Malatesta, Enrico Squarcina	Univ. Milano Bicocca	Ocean citizenship in B. Traven and Aldous Huxley.
Raymond Craib	Cornell University	Exile, escape, and libertarian enclosures.

Session 4 – 16.30/18.10

Topics: Ecology, Mesology, Environment CHAIR: Richard White
Jaroslav Biolek	Univ. of Brno	Psychogeography, ANT methodology and Guerrilla Permaculture Gardening: Inspiration for ‘Political Deep Green Epistemology’?
Philippe Pelletier	Univ. Lyon 2	Anarchism and geography: ecology or mesology?

Etienne Delay & Simon Maraud	Univ. of Limoges	Questioning capitalistic power structures: a way to reconnect stakeholders with the land?
Remi Benos	Univ. of Albi	For a political approach of the attachment of places. Anarchism, ecologism, regionalism.
Julien Dupoux	Univ. of Clermont-Ferrand	Peasants in libertarian Millevaches culture

Day 3 – Saturday 23/09

Session 1 – 9.30/11.10

Counter-mappings CHAIR: Fabrizio Eva
Nicolas Maestriperi	Univ. Tolouse 2	Future as a space of liberation?
Julia Udall	Sheffield Hallam	Co-designing a trans-European pedagogical mapping tool for solidarity economies
Richard Bower	Univ. Central Lancashire	Arcadian Counter-Cartographies of lost UK Plotlanders.
Luis Fernando Pérez Macias	GeoComunes	GeoComunes: Collaborative cartography for the defence of common goods.

Session 2 – 11.30/13.10

Counter-mappings CHAIR: Teresa Vicente
Diego Cervantes Ruiz	UFF – Rio	Anti-metrology: notes for a revolutionary program of time (and space).
Susana Isabel Velázquez Quesada	UNAM	The Merida Initiative: the territorial deployment of state's forces and the development of capital circulation circuits in neoliberal Mexico.
Nadia Lausset & Ismaël Zosso-Francolini	Federal Institute Lausanne	Pendio e democrazia: percorsi in montagna di formazione pratica alla democrazia radicale.
Dario Antonelli & Giacomo Sini	Activists	The space of anarchist action.

Session 3 – 14.30/16.10

Autonomy and cultural identities – CHAIR: Anthony Ince
Dalel Benbabaali	Oxford	Indigenous movements in tribal India: Fighting for Adivasi autonomy.
Engin Sustam	Univ. of Geneva	Rojava experience and Social Ecology between violence, insurrection and emancipation in Kurdish area.

Gianmaria Valent	Univ. of Padova	Solving housing needs through direct action: the autonomous settlements of Sinti citizens in Reggio Emilia (Italy).
Christine Donovan	Independent researcher / activist	The Dale Farm Traveller Site as an Anarchist Community.

Session 4 – 16.30/18.10

Feminisms CHAIR: Teresa Vicente
Desirée Enlund	Univ. of Umea	Place, gender and the defense of health care services.
Tina Bopp & Stefanie Meier	Univ. of Basel	Socio-spatial aspects of an eviction and the resulting neighborhood struggle. An anarchist perspective on gentrification and old age
Simon Springer	Univ. of Victoria	Anarcha-Feminist Geographies: Intersectionality, Emotion, and the Death of Patriarchy.

Caroline Kaltefleiter	State University of New York at Cortland	Embrace the Gap: Liminality, Riot Grrrls, Anarcha-Feminism and (Trans)locution.

Conclusion: discussion on the next steps of the ICAGG

ICAGG2017 / Proudly powered by WordPress