

Doctoral Program in Global History of Empires

2022-2023 SPRING SEMINARS

Workshop:

Monroe turns 200: two centuries of interimperial and transimperial connections

25-26 May 2023

3-6 pm and 9-12 CET

Campus Luigi Einaudi

Room 3D233

and on Webex

May 25 h. 3:00-6:00 pm

Chair: Juan Paz y Miño (PUCE, Quito)

Marco Mariano (University of Turin), Imagined Community to Security System to International Empire. The Many Lives of the Monroe Doctrine

Benedetta Calandra (University of Bergamo), US-Latin America Cultural Relations between History and Historiography

Vanni Pettinà (Ca' Foscari University, Venice), Latin America's Cold War Historiographies. Beyond the Virtual Monroe Doctrine

Discussant: Mario Del Pero (SciencesPo, Paris)

May 26 h. 09.00 am-12 pm

Chair: Barbara Curli (University of Turin)

Deborah Besseghini (University of Turin), Hispanic America and the Hemispheric Dream, 1800-1830

Alex Bryne (University of Nottingham), Fittingly Observed: Celebrating and Debating the Monroe Doctrine at its Centennial Anniversary, 1923

Felipe Colla de Amorim (Leiden University), Disputing Sovereignty: Latin America's Third Worldism at the United Nations

Stella Krepp (University of Bern), America for the Americans: Inter-American Relations and the Monroe Doctrine, 1940-68

Discussant: Ian Merkel (Free University, Berlin)

Info: marco.mariano@unito.it

