EXTREME RIGHT AND DEMOCRACY IN EUROPE AFTER THE SECOND WORLD WAR

Coexistence, Contrasts, Contradictions

Mural of the Battle of Cable Street (October 4, 1936), on the west wall of St George's Town Hall in Shadwell (East End of London). It depicts the clash between angry London residents and the police, who was protecting a march by the British Union of Fascists. Commissioned to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the battle in 1976, the mural was completed in 1983.

This study day is organised as part of the MSCA European Postdoctoral Fellowship programme, NEXT RIGHT (New Space for the Extreme RIGHT. An Alternative History of Western Europe in the Early Phase of the Cold War).
